How to find ANZSIC Code for a Business

The ANZSIC code is contained within the Australian Business Register (ABR) record for the business. With authority from the business as a BAS Agent you can log in to the ABR using your myGovID credentials.

1. Click on this link to access the ABR for Tax Professionals –

2. From the green Online Services menu on the RHS of the screen click.

3. Login in using your myGovID credentials (If you have more than one entity linked to your myGovID select your BAS Agent business).

4. From left hand menu select View/Update ABN Record.
5. Enter the ABN of the business and click Search.

6. From the right-hand menu select ANZSIC and business details.

   - ABN record
   - ANZSIC and business details
   - Main business addresses
   - Other locations
   - Business names
   - Trading names
   - Contacts
   - Associates
   - Add a GST role
   - Add a PAYG role

7. The ANZSIC and business details will be shown.

   ANZSIC and business details
   - Main business activity: Bookkeeping services
   - Main business activity category: Bookkeeping services
   - ANZSIC code: 6932
   - ANZSIC code description: Accounting Services
   - Main industry code: Administrative and Support Services
   - GST effective from: 12/12/2012

How to update information

If the information in the ABR record is incorrect seek approval to make necessary alterations.

8. Click on update an ABN record.
9. Select the correct category from the dropdown menu and then select Next.

10. Continue through each screen and update any further information and select Next with each screen.

11. At the final Declaration screen tick the box to sign the declaration using your myGovID credentials and click Submit.